

NACRO News

July 2021

Conference Updates

- Conference registration closes TODAY (Friday, July 9) at 12:00 p.m. ET!
- The final version of the agenda is live on the NACRO Conference website.
- Thanks for supporting NACRO and spreading the word about our Conference. More than 435 attendees have registered!
- If you purchased an institutional registration package, be sure each person has registered individually (including yourself)! Each attendee should have received a confirmation email from NACRO. The conference link will be emailed to everyone who registered this afternoon.
- Networking will take place between sessions, with different themes each day. Day 1 will offer networking sessions by your role at the university (Advancement, Career Service, Central Office, etc.) Day 2 will offer networking sessions by your geographic location. Day 3 will offer networking sessions by topics, such as cross-campus collaboration or DEI. There will also be open networking options throughout the Conference.
- Watch your inboxes for a welcome email this afternoon with more details about the Conference. Be sure to create a Remo account before the Conference begins so that you can log on right away Tuesday morning at 10:30 (ET). You can also check your system's compatibility with Remo here.

Many thanks to the Conference Programming Committee for their creativity and hard work putting together this year's virtual conference!
